Meet Brooklynn. Born three months premature, Brooklynn is now 2½ years old and is making remarkable progress. Weighing merely 1 lb., 7 oz. at birth, doctors gave Brooklynn's parents little hope that she would survive, let alone overcome the many challenges she would surely face.

Following Brooklynn's birth, she remained in VCU's NICU for six months. Her home was 100 miles away. Without The Doorways, her parents would have faced the unbearable strain of traveling back and forth every day, staying in a hotel, or some combination of both. Because of The Doorways, Brooklynn's parents were able to be with her and participate in her healing and recovery 24/7.

Like this family, many of our guests return to Richmond and come home to The Doorways for medical procedures, on-going testing and repeated surgeries on a regular basis. Thankfully, The Doorways' doors are always open and the staff, volunteers, and fellow guests stand ready to welcome each and every guest, and provide a safe, comfortable environment for health and healing to take place.

Thanks to the great medical care she received (and continues to receive) at VCU Health, and her parents' ability to be ever-present, Brooklynn has made a remarkable recovery.

Two-year-old Brooklynn Gentry at The Doorways this past May. At the time, she was recovering from a tonsillectomy. She and her mom were already making plans to return to The Doorways for a surgical procedure at VCU Medical Center to remove Brooklynn's tracheotomy.

Dear Friends,

AS THE SAYING GOES "THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME." Our homes provide security, belonging, identity and privacy. Our homes provide us with a centering – a place from which we leave each morning and to which we return each evening to be greeted by our loved ones. There's truly no place like home.

We all know what it's like to have our lives interrupted by unexpected news, illness, emotional turmoil, financial problems and more. But what if you had to face any one of these events away from home – your place of security and comfort? Yes, it's difficult to imagine, yet we experience this in "real life" every day at The Doorways – through the eyes of the 10,000+ guests who walk through our doors each year.

To serve our guests by providing a home away from home takes all of you – volunteers, donors, Board members, business and community leaders and more. We are so grateful for your support! Without you we could not meet the growing demand for our services year over year.

Next year marks a very special year for The Doorways. It's the 35th anniversary of our founding! While a lot has changed since our beginning, The Doorways has and will continue to treat guests like family, providing a safe, welcoming, home-like environment where health and healing can take place. Your continued support will ensure the necessary resources to operate our program and will make a significant difference in the lives of those we serve.

Again, thank you for your support and thank you for entrusting the care of thousands of families to The Doorways.

HISTORY

The Doorways is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation operating in a 115-room former hotel. We're the largest hospitality house in the country that operates on donations alone. We were originally founded in 1984 as Hospital Hospitality House of Richmond, a small, nonprofit medical lodging program designed to serve family members of patients in hospitals in downtown Richmond.

In the decade after our founding, more and more specialized medicine was made available only in larger cities or at teaching hospitals like VCU, increasing demand for our lodging program. To accommodate this growth well into the future, our board approved the purchase of a foreclosed, 112-room former hotel in downtown Richmond in 1994. After renovation, our new capacity made us one of the three largest organizations of our kind in the nation.

In just the past four years, demand for our Patient and Family Access Program has grown more than 25%. Today, The Doorways provides over 50,000 nights of safe, compassionate lodging, meals and other support services to more than 10,000 patients, family members and caregivers who are accessing medical care at hospitals and treatment centers in Richmond, VA.

35 years of providing a home away from home

Hospital and Treatment Partners

Our mission would not be possible without the support and partnership of the following Richmond-area hospitals, treatment centers and nonprofit programs who refer those in need to our program, and entrust us in the care of their patients:

- VCU Health
- Massey Cancer Center (VCU Health)
- Children's Hospital of Richmond (VCU Health)
- Hunter Holmes McGuire Veterans Affairs Medical Center
- Sheltering Arms Rehabilitation Hospital
- Virginia Treatment Center for Children (VCU Health)
- Retreat Hospital
- World Pediatric Project
- Veritas Collaborative
- Giving To Extremes

We also partner with Ronald McDonald House and Fisher House to lodge their clients when their facilities are full.

In addition to facilitating healthier recoveries for thousands of people, The Doorways plays a significant role contributing to Richmond's standing in the national and international medical communities. Hospitals and doctors become the best in certain fields because there are frequent opportunities to expand skills and diverse populations to study. The Doorways is a direct partner in these efforts by ensuring that a large, diverse population can continually access medical care and advanced research in Richmond. When we do this, we ensure that Richmond continues to rise in the ranks of:

- Cancer Research, Trials and Treatment
- Neurosurgery
- Pediatric and Neonatal Care
- Liver and Kidney Transplants
- Trauma and Critical Care
- Rehabilitation from Traumatic Injuries
- Maternal Care

When Richmond's health care ratings rise, so does its ability to attract students, families, retirees and businesses to our community. It also means that Richmond residents have access to some of the best specialized medical care in the nation.

Your Support of The Doorways makes this possible!

Parker – Coming Home to The Doorways

"The Doorways holds tremendous warmth. It's a place I want to tell everybody about because it really is like a comforting hand."

Parker, from Atlanta, GA, received a life-saving islet stem cell transplant at VCU Health. Parker was in the hospital for several months, while her mother stayed at The Doorways. She still has many months of recovery ahead, but she knows she can always come home to The Doorways for the follow-up appointments.

"I never thought I was going to be somebody in a transplant situation," Parker admits. "You just never know what your life is going to bring you, but you do get through it with God. There's no other way. My life has been in jeopardy. I needed to have this surgery to save my life and it most certainly has. The Doorways holds tremendous warmth. It's a place I want to tell everybody about because it really is like a comforting hand. You know you're going to be okay. You can stay. You can forget some of the things that are really going on and have new friends, have a lot of laughs. Part of what I think is getting well is being in a good environment after that. You just need people around when it's such a heavy burden. It doesn't feel heavy anymore."

Parker, from Atlanta, GA, received a life-saving islet stem cell transplant at VCU Health and is a regular guest of The Doorways when she returns for follow-up care.

Any time or day of the year, you'll find our dedicated Front Desk, Housekeeping, Maintenance and Social Worker staff doing what they do best – taking care of our guests!

From check-in to check-out, these key staff members ensure our guests are greeted with a warm welcome and a safe, clean, comfortable place to stay. Considering that every day there are over 150 adults and children coming and going at The Doorways, this is no small task. Day-in and day-out, these dedicated staff treat our guests like family and ensure their needs are being met.

We believe in the simple truth that everyone needs help eventually.

We believe that it's our joy in life to improve the lives of others.

We believe in the human spirit, the stubborn oh-yes-I-will determination that trumps any get-well-soon card.

We believe in being there until we're not needed instead of leaving when we get tired.

We are absolutely certain that we can love people we don't know.

We regret that we have only one life to spend in the service of others.

We believe life is meant to be shared.

We refuse to turn anyone away.

We are continually impressed by the people of Richmond.

We think Southern hospitality is a universal life skill, not a regional curiosity.

And when there's nothing more we can do, we'll do more. Give more. Love more.

We are The Doorways. Between healing and home.

The Doorways' mission is to provide lodging and support for patients and their loved ones who need to be close to the hospital but not far from the feeling of home.
